I learned about hard work and the dedication involved with operating a family business at an early age. The lineage of the “restauranteur blood line” extends to many of my family members. My grandparents, Michael and Anna Mucciarone, Sr. were the original founders of Mike’s Café and it was continued by my parents Michael and Patricia Mucciarone, Jr. My grandparents Joseph and Veronica Hellriegel began Hellriegel’s Inn. My aunt and uncle, Roy and Mary Jane (Hellriegel) Pohlman owned and managed restaurants that are rich in local traditions.

With the same work ethic instilled by my family, my staff and I are happy to continue this tradition with the introduction of Jimmy’s catering services. We want to accommodate your comfort and tastes and will comply with any dietary or budget restrictions that you may have.

Jimmy’s specializes in customizing a catering menu to fit customer needs.

We are happy to cater any event, large or small, corporate or social, elegant or casual, caviar to cook-outs. Inside you will find our standard catering menu. It is by no means comprehensive.

Operating a family business takes hard work, sacrifice and an uncompromising attention to detail. I dedicate my efforts here to my family for instilling those qualities in me. Thank you for the opportunity to provide you with a very memorable event.

We want to accommodate your comfort and tastes and will comply with any dietary or budget restrictions that you may have.
